

DATA PROECTION POLICY & PROCEDURES

WEST STANDEN FARM

West Standen Farm is a family run farm with two self catering cottages , The Stable & Carriage House.

We manage all our own bookings .

When you book a holiday with us either by enquiring through our website or by phone, we will take your email address and phone number which we will hold in order to go forward with relevant information about your booking and travel arrangements.

At no point will any of your personal details be forwarded or shared to any third party.

You will not be contacted by us for marketing.

West Standen Farm ensures that personal information is treated lawfully and correctly.

All personal data will be confidentially destroyed after your stay.

Links to third party sites and social media :

Comments or photographs shared with us by guests will only ever be used after obtaining full permission .